
These phases represent the general progression of mining over the life of the Site. Because mining above and below the water table will occur concurrently, phases overlap. The progression of reclamation activity will follow this same general sequence. Reclamation of completed areas will begin as soon as a sufficiently large open water area has been created to allow backfilling to occur without interfering with the on-going mining operation.

Phasing Plan: Phase 2
Figure 5-2

250 0 250 500
SCALE IN FEET